

To my grandparents—

May this Christmas be filled with the warmth of cherished stories, the comfort of shared traditions, and the love that you've woven into the fabric of our family. You are our greatest gift, each and every day.

To my grandparents—

May this Christmas be filled with the warmth of cherished stories, the comfort of shared traditions, and the love that you've woven into the fabric of our family. You are our greatest gift each and every day.