

To my father—

May this Christmas bring you the comfort of knowing how deeply you are respected, appreciated, and loved. Thank you for your strength, your guidance, and every silent sacrifice you have made for our family. You are a blessing in every season, and I am grateful to call you my dad.