

To my husband—

May this Christmas bring you joy that fills your heart, warmth that makes you smile, and love that reminds you how deeply
you are treasured
You are the greatest gift I could ever wish for.

To my husband—

This Christmas, I'm thankful for your steady love, your gentle strength, and the way you make our home feel safe and warm. May this season wrap you in peace, fill your heart with quiet joy, and remind you how deeply you are treasured. You are my partner, my comfort, and my favourite blessing — today and always. Merry Christmas, my love.
